

Jake Crum, while only sixteen years old, has already won more races than most drivers twice his age, having won 52 championships and 350 individual races in everything from go-karts to UARA Late Model. Jake is a rising star on the circuit, and is already being carefully watched by most of the major teams.

This gave us a lot to work with, and we're taking full advantage of it. We've created an idea behind Jake that will really turn some heads – and be the perfect fit for some new sponsors in the sport. We quickly created a new logo for the team, and the car to go with it. The sponsorship materials are in process, as is a completely overhauled website.

Jake the snake is on the loose...
